

WiFi for non-engineering Professionals, Managers and Executives

---

Description:

This course provides the fundamentals of WiFi and its applications. It is designed for managers, strategists, marketing specialists, procurement personnel and others whose jobs requires a non-technical overview of WiFi .

Objectives:

- To describe the major applications of WiFi
- Explain the basic principles underlying the operation of WiFi
- Diagram the basic components and operation of a WiFi network
- Summarize how WiFi networks are designed, deployed and Optimized
- Discuss WiFi's relationship with WiMAX and other technologies.

Course content:

---

- Telecommunication Basics
- Introduction to WiFi
- How WiFi works
- 802.11 Standards Evolution
- Procuring, Designing and Deploying a WiFi Network
- Future evolution of WiFi.

Delivery type:

---

The training is scheduled for 1 day and is instructor led.

The day is divided in two modules of 3 hours each.